PROTESTED TARIFF TRANSMITTALS NO ACTIONS TAKEN

WC Docket No. 17-65

Pursuant to sections 0.91 and 0.291 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.91, 0.291, the Pricing Policy Division of the Wireline Competition Bureau has reviewed the petitions to reject and to suspend and investigate the tariff transmittals listed in this Public Notice, which include the petition filed against the AT&T transmittals filed on June 7, 2017,¹ and the petitions filed on June 23, 2017 against various annual access charge tariff transmittals.²

We conclude that none of the parties filing petitions against the tariff transmittals at issue have presented compelling arguments that the transmittals are so patently unlawful as to require rejection. Similarly, we conclude that none of the parties have presented issues regarding the tariff transmittals that raise significant questions of lawfulness which require their investigation.

Accordingly, the petitions to reject and to suspend and investigate the tariff transmittals at issue are denied. The AT&T June 7, 2017 Tariff Transmittals became effective on June 22, 2017, and the Annual Access Charge Filing Tariff Transmittals became effective on July 1, 2017. Applications for review and petitions for reconsideration of these decisions may be filed within 30 days from the date of this public notice in accordance with sections 1.115 and 1.106 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.115, 1.106.
